GEN. POWELL CLAYTON THE

Nays Arkansas and South Generally Will Given Advice in Greensboro, N. C.

There was a good deal in THE SUN'S recent reference to Mr. Taft's speech at Greensboro, N. C. on July 9, 1996, which is particularly David Warfield. Mr. Frohparticularly applicable to conditions in man's contract for plays will begin in Arkansas, said ticorge Filles, manager September and continue until May. for Arkansas of one of the big insurance companies and Republican candidate for Congress lour years ago

'On that occasion Mr Taft, then this season Secretary of War, said he thought it Secretary of War, said he thought it would be better to have the Federal nounce within a short time an arrangement he has made with capitalists by which there will be constructed for him a theatre in this city to be used for keeping and compact organization devoted wholly a number of actors employed in different to the recruitment of delegates to nomiinventions if only President Tafr would follow the excellent suggestion mad by Secretary Taft what a great thing it would be for the Republican party

Arkansas for the last thirty-five years and probably have as large an acquaintance as any man living there and am the halls of Congress in 1908 but this would have carried with it the election of one or more Congressmen, and with Republican members from that State the occupation of the State of t machine would have been gone

The party in Arkansas is in the absothe same head for forty years and which never failed of absolute control of the motive was now what it used to be But Federal patronage in the State during all the whole audience was almost devout in the wh Federal patronage in the State during all its attitude, all following intently the these years. Only once during all this English textbook, and many were greatly was when Mckinley wished to appoint women an old school friend to a minor place, and in order to placate the machine he uniform had to give its candidate a job equally Calvary, my poor back ached so

When Tait's Greensboro speech was published his name was wiped off the bility so far as the Republican machine was concerned, on the theory of 'no pie, of the leaders, and as a result upon their return a shout went up for Taft since been appointed to Federal lobs, the Lashwood for next season upon the pay- expolery she simply closed her supplier

"I spert corsi lerable time and money where NAMES AND ADDRESS AND AD

Schelling felix of Auto Bases With Hoffcount is Lake Geneva.

Let us a filling the painest and Mrs.

Schelling articles descently by the White Schelling articles descently by the trained nurses of the association. The children will all below up the year transported daily in the office the opening of the public schools, to white head of the association

The filix and form the isasiet, and article regularly by the trained nurses of the association. The children will all below up the weight of the opening of the public schools, to white head the school of about 500 conjusted which thought be said

"It is a female," replied Mmc. Caille,
"But Mme Caille, feeling her snut, the manufacture of central public schools, to which about 200 survive, but less shad
which about 200 survive, but less shad
the surface for strangers."

"But Mme Caille, feeling her snut, the survival public schools and shad will be so amiable as to shampeo my cat's she shouted. She

BOSS EMERITUS IN ARKANSAS FROHMAN GETS THE BIJOU. FACT FOLLOWS ON FICTION signs a Contract With L. S. Sire to Provide

Its Plays for Next Season Leander S. Sire, manager of the Bijou MAN, NAY'S GEORGE TILLES. Theatre, has asked Charles Frohman to provide the productions for the entire season at that theatre, and Mr. Frohman Have No Political Change Until Presi- yesterday signed contracts to do so. This dent Taft Heeds Secretary Taft's gives Charles Frohman another New York theatre. Up to the present the Bijou Theatre has been booked independently. It has had conspicuous success with one or two notable record runs.

Frohman said yesterday that he was glad to effect this agreement at the suggestion of Mr Sire, as he has an unusual number of special productions to make

Mr Frohman said also that he will ancomedies from time to time. The work undertaken in this theatre will be entirely distinct in character from the work under-taken at his other New York theatres.

AT THE PASSION PLAY.

I have been in active business in Visitor Writes That It is Uncomfortable Sitting Through the Show.

A letter received yesterday from a New York woman who had just seen the familiar with conditions, and I know that Passion Play at Oberammergau indicates this case is of too serious a nature for me as long as Federal patronage is the price that an American who is used to viewing to dispose of immediately. I need time to of the Southern vote in the national con- productions from a comfortable box at vention so long will the South fail to be the Metropolitan Opera House or at one until next Saturday morning. represented on the Republican side in of our theatres is likely to be most impressed with the discomfort attendant in my opinion the electoral vote of upon viewing the show provided by the Arkansas might have been given to thrifty Bavarian peasants rather than by Roosevelt in 1904 and possibly to Taft the excellence of the representation. The tiny cramped hard benches, and as we were so far in we could not get out until the end 1 personally was disappointed bute control of a machine which has had in the end I personally was disappointed in the play, but then our seats were the same head for forty years and which too far back for us to distinguish any has been fortunate in being on the right features, and with swarms of tourists side at every national convention and has 4,500 one could hardly feel that the never failed of absolute control of the motive was now what it used to be. But Lots of peasants were prese

NEWS OF PLAYS AND PLAYERS, mistress. * state in Arkansas as a Presidential possi- William Morris, Inc., Secures the Services face of her mistress beamed upon her of George Lashwood for a Year. no vote. Two years later word went by cable whereby William Morris, Inc. out that the delegation from Arkansas after buying off at a cost of $10,000 George beautiful, mon Dien! In effect, all that should go to Unicago uninstructed, and Lashwood's Drury Lane contract, has ac- one could dream of the most beautiful! interviews to that effect were printed in quired the services of Lashwood, the And her eyes, of a blue like the heaven. the St. Louis papers that circulate in vaudeville entertainer, for the coming were they not wise and caim? Mon Dieu Arkansas. Then a hurry call sent from season, opening at the American Music yes! It was a cat among thousands, a Washington, was responded to by three Hall, New York, in October, after which mimi almost tivine * * he will play the entire Morris circuit And of a chic. And caressing-(which On his last European trip Mr Morris was exaggeration. And of an affection-Now it is a fact that the eighteen dele- endeavored to sign a contract with Lash- (which was doubtful) And courageousgates sent rom Arkansas to the Chicago wood for the season of 1916-11, but found (which was wholly untrue). convention, with only three or four ex- that he had been secured for the next yes! A cut of cuts! And was the boy to ceptions, vers all Federal officeholders, twelve months by the Drury Lane Thea- be the whole afternoon in delivering a four of them having their offices in the tre to play leading parts in the panto- cheese? same building. Most of the delegates who mimes there As a result of many cable "For all the Zut cared less than nothing were not at that time officeholders have messages Mr. Morris was able to get In the midst of her mistress's sweetest four years ago in my candidacy and had "The Little Damozel" in addition to May of her today, as who should say "Conoccasion to learn how thoroughly the ma. Buckley and Cyril Keightley, Leslie Ken-tinue. I am listening. But it is unimchine in Arkansas controls politics. There you for the role of the Hon. Fitzroy Locke, portent is a boss emeritus, Gen. Powell Clayton, Frank Lacy for the part of Captain Neil who pulls the wires, and although not Partington and Colton White for the role no was drugged down the grade at every increasing speed by the score of cars Engineer Sticks found the airbrakes unavaining and in whistled for the application of the hardbrakes, but the brakes of the hardbrakes, but the brakes of the caisoos, which had been distinct the application of the hardbrakes, but the brakes of the boats he has ordered distinct the application of the hardbrakes, but the brakes of the boats he has ordered distinct the application of the hardbrakes, but the brakes of the boats he has ordered disconcerted, but tactfully accepting the hint. The best quality or -2 demanded Alexandrine, with the suggestion for summer amateurs suggestion for summer amateurs.

First folio Shakespeare bought that a six-year-old can manage it readily. The best quality or -2 demanded Alexandrine, with the suggestion of a singer. The best quality or and are related to the place of the Russian volunteer fleet, and the country strain and it is you? she said. You have to make some purchases, no doubt. "E.gs. madame." answered her visitor with unexampled frigidity. "Ah, it is you?" she said. "You have to make some purchases, no doubt." "E.gs. madame." answered her visitor with unexampled frigidity. "Ah, it is you?" she said. "You have to make some purchases, no doubt." "E.gs. madame." answered her visitor with unexampled frigidity. "Ah, it is you?" she said. "You have to make some purchases, no doubt." "E.gs. madame." answered her visitor with unexampled frigidity. "Ah, it is you?" she said. "You have to make some purchases, no doubt." "E.gs. madame." answered her visitor with unexampled frigidity. "Ah, it is you?" she said. "You have to make some purchases, no doubt." "E.gs. madame." answered her visitor with unexampled frigidity. "Ah, it is you?" she said. "You have to make some purchases, no doubt." "E.gs. madame." answered her visitor with unexampled frigidity. "Ah, it is you?" she said. "You have to make some purchases, no doubt." "E.gs. madame." answered her visitor with the surgestion for summer amateurs.

soon in Manhattan parks are as follows green and has a green a

GUY WETMORE CARRYL'S STORY DUPLICATED IN NEW YORK.

Situation Described in His Book "Zut" as Arising in Paris Repeated Two Maltese Cats With Two Owners.

In a police court story printed in THE SUN not so very long ago the following problem was presented: "If a Maltese lives half with you and half with me. whose are the kittens?" And now in the effort to prove once again that fact and fiction are more closely akin than is generally supposed the story is reprinted;

A Maltese cat with seven kittens is the ause of a quarrel between Joseph Gillman and David Mitchell, who conduct separate stores at a Allen street. The cat has been spending part of her in Gillman's place and part Mitchell. The result was that each believed she belonged to him. A few days ago Gillman found seven fine kittens in a box near the stove. When Mitchell called on his neighbor a day or two later and found the kittens he claimed them. Gillman refused to let them go. He said the mother was his and so were her offspring. Mitchell had Gillman summoned to court vesterday. After the Magistrate heard the

"Gentlemen, the matter of ownership in think

In the meantime the kittens are to remain in the box behind the stove in Gillman's store.

in the case did not realize that she was not original in causing this litigation. that she was plagiarizing, in fact, from a transfer of the vulgar. The she was plagiarizing in fact, from a transfer of the vulgar. story written seven years ago by an on and that she was once more proving that In the story written about the proto-

"It was from the latter that she detime has it been turned down, and that affected, even to tears, men as well as rived her name, the which, in Parisian drop into the epicerie for a box of sardines women Lots of peasants were present argot, at once means everything and and a bit of reminiscent chat. But the as well as a great many soldiers in nothing, but is chiefly taken to signify since called Flique. And now he came complete and magnificent indifference to sternly, he mentioned many unpleasant all things mundane and material, and in things among them eggs.

the matter of indifference Zut was past

"I know more than I have told, but not the matter of indifference Zut was past mistress. " " As she basked in the mistress. " " As she basked in the warm sun at the shop door the round face of her mistress beamed upon her face of her mistress beamed upon her than I can tell if I choose more than I cho Negotiations were completed vesterday by cable whereby William Morris, Inc., as accounted the services of Lashwood, the little desk and the voice of her mistress sent fulsome flattery winging abuse it. And so the calls of Zut were no longer disturbed. The short visits eventually became long visits, whole nights were spent in the salon, necessitating the proposition of a box and bit of carpet. And the contract has accounted the services of Lashwood, the little desk and the voice of her mistress sent fulsome flattery winging abuse it. And so the calls of Zut were no longer disturbed. The short visits eventually became long visits, whole nights were spent in the salon, necessitating the proposition of a box and bit of carpet. And ment of £2,000 to the Drury Lane Theatre eyes with an inexpressibly eloquent air Henry W. Savage has engaged for lof weariness or turned to the intricacies Such was Zut of Paris, and of perhaps

Fine Vacation Reading

"MacGrath's Best Novel"

SPLENDID HAZARD

 $\boldsymbol{B}_{\boldsymbol{Y}}$ Harold MacGrath Author of The Man on the Box, Etc.

> "By far the most interesting novel from Harold MacGrath's pen-notable for its love interest and unusually satisfactory ending."-Indianate

Pictures by HOWARD CHANDLER CHRISTY and HARRISON FISHER
The BORBS-MERRILL COMPANY, Publishers Indiana, surveyed the duckclad assistants and the astounded customers with tremendous A BOOK FOR THE BOY SCOUTS

'You others,' she added, 'I ask you and feed her feed her with I have dof-what! It is overwhelming, unheard of-and above all now! But here the peace-

he cried, advancing razor in hand, author now dead. Guy Wetmore Carryl. and that she was once more proving that fact is just as likely to follow upon fiction as vice versa.

Hierer arvancing razor in hand, when the rest, arvancing razor in hand, when they are at home to insult their neighbors, but here no! * * * Go! You and your cat! And by way of emphasis he fairly kickel Zut into her astonished owner's arms. He was magnificent, was Hippolyte!"

Hippolyte!"
The final insult was rubbed in that type of the Allen street Maltese cat Zut. who lends her name to entitle the story, is a Parisian, a beautiful and mammoth Angora, distinguished by her magnificent unconcern.

The final insult was rubbed in that evening, when Abel Flique, guardian of the law in the seventeenth arrondissement appeared in the little epicerie. In old days when Alexandrine's ninety kilos were fifty still Abel had been her most devoted suitor and later had found it daily convenient and agreeable to daily convenient so to the climactic scene.

duckelad, and, under the skilfully plied razor of the other, the virgin down slid from the lips and chin of a slim and someizer Hippolyte played a fine spray of organization and a caref perfumed water upon the ruddy countenance of Abel Flique

The present issue of the

"It was an eloquent moment, eminently fitted for some dramatic incident, and that dramatic incident Zut supplied conscious dignity from the corner where was her carpeted box, and in her mouth a lump something, which when de-ted in the immediate centre of the Salon Malakoff resolved itself into an

that a six-year-old can manage it readily.

Hold and alses could adopt the line at the roll of forty index an hour caused it is not a forty index an hour caused in the roll of the sociation for the Aid of Crippied Children.

The tsociation for th cat envest thompson seton on LIVING OUTDOORS.

Movement in America Really Older in England, He Says A Place in It

An interesting feature of the present life to boys is the manual "Boy Scouts of the subject, information, badges, uniforms, equipment and other accessories may be obtained at the headquarters of the Boy Scouts of America, Inc., at 124 East Twenty-eighth street, in charge of The American movement, its promoters say, antedates the English.

"The woodcraft and scouting move ment," says Mr. Seton, "began to take shape in America some ten years ago. door life, woodcraft and scoufing I orary secretary of scout council, inspector, called its brotherhood the Woodcraft Indians. In 1904 I went to England to carry on the work there, and knowing Gen On the morning in question the three R. S. S. Baden-Powell as the chief advoctairs were occupied, and yet other cate of scouting in the British army incustomers awaited their turn. The vited him to cooperate with me in making vited him to cooperate with me in making air was laden with violet and lilac. A stout chauffeur, in a leather suit, thickly coated with dust, was undergoing a shampoo at the hands of one of the ment, incorporating the principles of the Indians with other ethical features bearing on savings banks, fire drills, &c what startled youth, while from a vapor. as well as by giving it a partly military of organization and a carefully compiled

The present issue of the Boy Scouts of America will constitute the book of organization. It will be followed by others. advanced slowly and with an air of making a dictionary of woodcraft, with descriptions of the common trees, herbs. flowers, &c., trailing or tracking, sign language, bird stuffing, emergency foods. first aid, lasso, boat building, campfire day movement to give more out of door America," prepared by Ernest Thompson the Boy Scouts but has not yet passed Seton and published last week by Double-his tests for second class scout. In special day. Page & Co. The manual aims to tell cases boys of 9 years old may become boys how to live outdoors. Literature on tenderfeet. the Young Men's Christian Association of

Than That Started by Baden-Powell for All Boys-The Rules and Tests.

Because the idealized Indian of Hiawatha cal committees. With scout commissioner has always stood as the model for out-second class and tenderfoot. A first class scout is one who has passed certain tests "A second class scout is one who has

A tenderfoot is a boy who has joined

A court of honor is formed of the scoutmaster and two patrol leaders, or in the ase of a single parol by the patrol leader It decides reawards, a thick stick. and the corporal. punishments and other questions.

Scout councils in each State or large city, composed of leading men, scout-masters and others interested in the movement and representatives of other organi-zations for boys in the area to advise loappointed by chief scout and council as honmovement in his area. "Local committees in each town and cinity or group of villages, composed scoutmasters and others interested work among boys in the district, to assist scoutmasters and develop the movement. With local secretary to keep register and report to scout commissioner Troops, containing three or more patrols. Patrols, containing six to eight scouts.

A boy on joining the Boy Scouts must be 12 years old and pass a test in the fol-

Before taking the oath know the scout's laws and signs and salute Know the history of the Stars and Stripes.

Tie four standard knots. He then takes the scout's oath and is enlled as a tenderfoot and is entitled to wear the buttonhole badge. Before being awarded the second class scout's badge a tenderfoot must pass the following tests:

Fiction Number

Scribner's Magazine

ON ALL NEWS-STANDS

If you want to read

The Best

Short Stories of the year, buy the

August

BOOKS—All out of print books supplied, a matter on what subject write me stating book wanted; I can get you any book ever published when in England call and inspect my stock a 50,000 rare books. BAKER'S GREAT BOOK SHOP, John Bright st. Birmingham England.

Uncie Benjamin, Uncie Barbassou, Gorky Stories, Bandello, Patronio, Arabian Nights PRATT, 161 6th av.

cook a rabbit or pluck and cook a bird

Also make a damper or camp sinker half a pound of flour, or a "twist" baked on Read a map correctly and draw an Thus the whole organization consists intelligible rough sketch map. Point out a compass direction without the help of a > timber or salternative produce an article of carpentry or joinery or metal work made by himself satisfactorily. 9. Judge distance, size, numbers and when recruits are not immediately desired but must be carried out within three months or the badge withdrawn. Above all scoutmasters are asked !

Ever written is "Cut off In Paris," by Arthur McFarlane, which appears in the August number of Harper's Magazine. This is a tale of the ridiculous experiences of a young couple who through an absurd error become involved in a comedy in which the formal authorities and the entire police force of Paris finally participate.

Hin," by Margaret Cameron, a love story and a comedy of errors in which a perverse heroine is kidnapped by a persistent suitor to act as cook at a dinner party.

There are 8 Complete Short Stories in this Number. Among the authors of these stories of tremendous and dramatic interest are Joseph Conrad, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Brian Hooker.

by W. D. HOWELLS IN COLOR AND TINT

Use an axe for felling or trimming light height within 25 per cent. error 10 Bring a tenderfoot trained by himself in the points required of a tenderfoot. (This may in special cases be postponed

Above all scoutmasters are asked to remember the policy is to get numbers.

"We don't want," say the instructions "a select 'corre d'élite.' but we want to put a taste of the right spirit into every boy we can possibly get hold of. There are ten million boys wanting it."

As an instance of why they want it. Mr. Seton tells a story of a benevolent rich man who chartered a steamer and took some hundreds of boys to the Catskills for a day in the woods.

kills for a day in the woods.

"They were duly landed," he says, "and told to go in now and have a glorious time. It was like gathering up a netful of catfish and throwing them into the woods, saying, "Go and have a glorious time."

The boys sulked around and sullenly

"The boys sulked around and sullenly disappeared. An hour later on being looked up they were found in groups under the bushes smoking cigarette shooting crars and playing cards, the only things they knew."

The manual after giving the details of organization, including scout and forester laws, explains signs and signalling from the Morse code and distance measuring to Indian signs and old sa vings and weather signs. It gives a full treatise and the use of firearms to treatment for mosquitoes and black flies, tracking, finding latitude by the stars, building a log cabin and first aid to the injured

The Funniest

Another delightful story of pure humor is "The Little White

Arthur Sherburne Hardy, R. E. Vernede, etc., etc. My Memories of Mark Twain | Many Pages of Pictures

HARPERS for AUGUST

MIDSUMMER FICTION NUMBER